March 2011

Dear Quilters everywhere,

The Barossa Quilt and Craft Cottage is happy to inform you that Caroline Sharkey (quilter and fibre artist) will be holding a 2 day workshop at the Cottage for her 3D Poppies or 3D Seascape on Saturday 17th September and Sunday 18th September 2011. To those ladies that visited her and saw her lovely work during the Vintage Festival in April we will not need to explain her creative talents. This workshop is suitable for all skill levels – beginners through to advanced. If you have wanted to do landscape or 3D quilts this is the workshop for you.

Caroline uses fabric and threads as her medium instead of paper and paint and a sewing machine instead of a brush. The texture, colour and prints of fabrics thrown together with threads fascinates and often gives inspiration for a new design. Caroline seldom draws out a design, but lets the fabrics and textures determine her next step. While Caroline works towards an idea she tries to avoid any definite image of the completed piece, because the complex nature of fabric often reveals surprises that give unexpected changes of direction and exciting results. Most of her designs are influenced by her love of the Australian Landscape, flor and reef fish. She is also driven by colour and texture as she strives to find that special combination that has the WOW factor. This class will help unleash your creativity. It is a raw edge appliqué technique so come and have some fun with your fabrics and sewing machine. As this class uses different textures you can share and swap with fellow students. To see samples of her work please go to her website www.carolinesharkey.com

2 Day Seminar/Workshop

Caroline will be conducting a 2 day seminar/workshop on “Painting with Fabric and Thread – 3D Poppies & 3D Seascape”.
